

Lewis M. Pincus, D.O.

Represented by The NWT Group
LindaLevy@theNWTgroup.com, 817-987-3600

MULTIMEDIA

CBS Television KTVT, Dallas, Texas, September 2000 to September 2001.
Weekly medical report, "CBS Health Alert". See www.drlepincus.com for transcripts.

Featured Guest, Positively Texas Live! Channel 11, CBS Television, Dallas, Texas
February, March, May, July 2000. Topics: weight loss, life-style change, nutritional supplements.

Wrote the foreword to Alternative Medicine What Works, by Adrian Fugh-Berman, MD., published by Williams and Wilkens, 1997.

Microsoft Network, Assistant Editor, Healthcare Professions Forum, 1996-1997

Multiple radio and television interview/talk shows, including CNN, PBS, Bloomberg
Radio, on lifestyle change and "Back to School and Healthy Eating for Parents and Kids".

Columbia Healthcare Internet chat, nationwide on American Online, featured physician every other Wednesday night on Physicians Chat, 1996 - 1997.

Today Newspapers, Dallas, Texas, featured columnist, 1995-1999. Published multiple columns on lifestyle change and being well. This is a weekly suburban newspaper chain that goes to five cities southwest of Dallas, with populations totaling approximately 100,000 people.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2004 – present	Medical Director, Phase II Cardiac Rehabilitation Program Methodist Charlton Medical Center, Dallas, Texas
2003 - present	Medical Director, Weight Management Institute Methodist Health System, Dallas, Texas
1994 – present	Founder and Medical Director, To Life! TM Lifestyle Change and Weight Loss Program, Dallas, TX
1985 – present	Private Practice, Internal Medicine, Dallas, TX.
1983- 1985	Private Practice, Internal Medicine, Ft. Worth, TX.

EDUCATION

Residency, Jan. 3, 1977 to Jan. 2, 1980
Internal Medicine
Botsford General Hospital, Farmington, Michigan

Internship, July 1, 1975 to June 30, 1976
Rotating internship
Botsford General Hospital, Farmington, Michigan

Medical School, June 1971 to June 1975
Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine
Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine

Undergraduate, June 1971
BA in Biology
Temple University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

BOARD CERTIFICATIONS, SOCIETIES and HONORS

2003	Board Certified, Diplomate, American Board of Bariatric Medicine
2002	American Society of Bariatric Physicians
1987	Fellow, American College of Osteopathic Internal Medicine
1982	Board Certified, Internal Medicine, American Board of Osteopathic Internal Medicine.

ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

1995 - present	Clinical faculty, Physician Assistant program University of Texas Health Science Center Dallas, Texas. Clinical preceptor and faculty lecturer.
1983 - present	Clinical assistant professor of Internal Medicine University of North Texas Health Science Center Fort Worth, Texas
1980 to 1983	Assistant Professor of Internal Medicine, University of North Texas Health Science Center, Fort Worth, Texas

MEDICAL STAFF AFFILIATIONS

Dr. Lewis Pincus
817-987-3600

1998 - 2007

St. Paul Medical Center, Dallas, Texas

1990 To Present

Methodist Charlton Medical Center, Dallas, Texas

CORPORATE OBESITY CONSULTING

Microsoft Corporation. 2002 to present. Initial provider to 1600 employee Irving, Texas corporate campus of obesity services as part of the Microsoft Obesity Management benefit, a breakthrough incentive based program for obese employees. Only DFW provider from 2002-2005.

Lifestyle Change and Wellness lecture series, ExxonMobil, Inc., Spring, 2001

PROFESSIONAL SPEAKERS BUREAUS

Abbott Laboratories

Sankyo Pharmaceuticals

Forrest Labs

OBESITY AND LIFESTYLE CHANGE

Present: Founder and leader of To Life!TM since 1994, a structured one year (minimum) weight loss, weight loss maintenance and cardiovascular risk factor reduction program teaching excellence in nutrition, fitness, mind/body, medicine and the molecular basis for inner healing. Author of the To Life!TM workbook, a 100 page guide to weight loss, lifestyle change and weight loss maintenance. See the “To Life!TM” section at www.drlepincus.com.

Principal national speaker Abbott Laboratories on the obesity epidemic, lifestyle change, and the metabolic syndrome.. List of presentations available on request.

Multiple state and national medical, nurse practitioner, and physician assistant meetings as featured speaker on “Successful Office Treatment of Obesity”. Full list available on request.